

Tactix[®] TR51[™]

Technical Rescue & Recovery Ensemble

Providing you with the comfort, protection and functionality you need to get the job done.

The LION Tactix TR51 is an extremely versatile rescue and recovery garment. It's certified to meet NFPA 1999 and 1951, so you can use it for both EMS duty and USAR tasks. The NOMEX[®] outer shell is tough and durable for extended wear life. The 3M[™] Scotchlite[™] Reflexite[®] Reflective Material makes sure you're seen in low-light and daylight conditions. The CROSSTECH[®] SR removable liner provides liquid penetration resistance to water, blood, and bodily fluids. And, there's plenty of task-specific pockets for the tools of the trade.

KEY HIGHLIGHTS:

- Dual EMS and USAR NFPA Certification
- Ergonomically-designed for optimal rescue and recovery performance
- Adjustable coat and pant features for a more personalized fit
- Durable, high-quality construction
- Available in male and female models
