

FIRST DUE EMS

The Phenix First Due EMS model is designed for first responders engaged in rescue, paramedic and medical response, and combines the safety of an NFPA helmet with the low profile of a USAR helmet to create the perfect helmet for EMS personnel attending to high-risk environments. While primarily designed for rescue applications it is a dual purpose helmet that meets current OSHA and NFPA 1971 standards.

Reduced Brim with Brim Trim

COLOR OPTIONS

WHITE
YELLOW

RED
BLACK

BLUE
ORANGE

ESS Snap On/Off Kit available on all First Due Helmets

SPECS

- High temperature thermoplastic shell
- Closed cell energy impact cap
- Exclusive Phenix suspension liner fully adjustable from 6 1/2" to 7 3/4"*
- Black Nomex and fire retardant cotton 8" detachable earlaps
- NFPA compliant goggles
- Standard colors: red, white, blue, yellow, black, and orange

OPTIONS

- Deluxe leather comfort package
- J5 Firelid
- Latigo leather combination chinstrap
- Custom Leather ID Shield (3.5", 4", 4.5", and 6")
- Reflective lettering/ name rockers
- Brim Trim
- Magnet panel system (black or white)

*If necessary, other sizing available upon request.

Now offering helmet mounted flashlights. Pictured is the 3AAA eLED® Vizion® Headlamp flashlight by Underwater Kinetics.

FEATURES

- Compound Path Optics
- Waterproof
- 3 Selectable beam patterns- Spot, Diffuse, and Red Diffuse

