Engaging

Tahoe's variety of offerings provide the opportunity to create dynamic spaces for users to feel welcome even when it is preoccupied with people they don't know. By combining backless lounge pieces and low occasional tables with top cushions you are able to create an open style bench while subtly dividing the space.

Fluent

Tahoe's occasional tables and lounge seating were designed to work in harmony to increase their function within the space. The tables are offered at various heights; providing an arm rest, a seat level surface, or shorter, combined with a top cushion to create an open style bench that subtly divides the space while adding comfort and preventing damage to the veneer.
