OFFICE ENVIRONMENT SOLUTIONS

Collaborative Space

ENCOURAGE COMMUNICATION!

Nvision stays on the cutting edge of market trends with a panel-based system that facilitates teamwork and communication. This line of products makes impromptu meetings and spontaneous discussions possible with an ingenious system that features 30" (756 mm) low acoustical panels and clear privacy screens. It also includes low storage units with cushions that separate individual workspaces while allowing teamwork.

BREAK/LOUNGE

Set up relaxation spaces in common areas to get people talking and sharing ideas.

Stad pouf, metal storage cabinet and bookcase by Lacasse.
Cube 300 and Hip Hop lounge furniture by Arold.

Say goodbye to closed-in spaces. Glass panels and acrylic screens let light shine through while providing the privacy you need.

Nvision is also tech savvy! These receptacles with USB ports attach to work surfaces and connect to the power system at the base of the panel to meet all current technology requirements.

The elegant, refined design and precise alignment of Nvision components create a sleek, contemporary look.

Shared Space

COLLABORATE EFFICIENTLY!

Demand flexibility. Face-to-face or back-to-back, planned meeting or quick chat—this versatile system sets up and reconfigures any number of ways for maximum efficiency.

Nvision also includes a vast selection of storage units and accessories that attach to the panels for better work task organization.

Upswing chairs and stool by United Chair.
Quorum Multiconference height adjustable tables by Lacasse.

STAY FOCUSED!

When work requires planning and concentration, 50" (1264 mm) high panels and storage units provide all the privacy that is needed, letting users work quietly without being cut off from the team.

Adding end-of-run laminate gallery panels reduces the workstations' total footprint while adding a distinctive finishing touch.

TIP

The shared center-mounted unit is an affordable storage and privacy solution that takes up little room.

Active Work Space

ENSURE BETTER TEAMWORK!

With its functional and ergonomic design, the Nvision System meets the needs of a modern, dynamic business, integrating activity and meeting areas into the work environment through features like the asymmetrical conference surface and its ergonomic base which facilitates discussions and idea sharing.

Shifter, Papillon and Expression chairs by United Chair.
Stad poufs and metal lateral files by Lacasse.

Private Space

WORK FREELY!

Nvision excels in combining privacy and efficiency so you can stay focused. Tall, acoustical or glass panels along with stack-on screens and a sliding or hinged door add endless configuration possibilities and contribute to maximize privacy while creating light-filled workspaces.

BONUS

Design your own distinctive environment by adding Lacasse freestanding casegoods, United Chair seating and Arold modular lounge furniture.
