

Rockwell
Unscripted™

Knoll

where you
control
the Hospitality, theater and play at work.

From Knoll and David Rockwell, renowned for creating places where people want to be, comes an unrivaled work experience designed to let spontaneity unfold and people complete the story. Welcome to Rockwell Unscripted.

So glad I ran into you.

Unworkday.

The concept of the workplace is being reinvented. Despite mobile technology and other workspace alternatives, for most people the office is still home base for getting work done. To encourage employees to work on site, companies are providing compelling environments and programs that draw workers together to foster engagement and build community.*

* To explore the research behind Immersive Planning, visit knoll.com/research

Influenced by startup and café culture, a hospitality mindset is breathing new life into the office. Workplace design is among the most definitive predictors of employee satisfaction, and in turn, loyalty. One good turn deserves another.

rehearsed.

Can we chat for a minute?

Knoll

Telly™ Screen

Soft forms provide peek-a-boo privacy and nicely define a space. Fabric-covered segments link in a straight line or curved up to 160 degrees; two, three or four segments high (overall heights of 32", 46", and 60"H), each totem 19"D at the base, 20"W; minimum of two totems required.

Amplification

“The collection
is very much
open to what other people will
do with it.
It’s

dsOH

an invitation

to make it
their own.”

– David Rockwell

eweewe

Hang on, let me check.

