

Ridge Guest

Ridge Guest Lounge/Guest

A bucket chair with a twist. Quite literally, Ridge Guest draws on the archetypal bucket chair and distinguishes itself by adding a twisting bevel detail on its upper perimeter. Subtly blending purity of form with contemporary accents, Ridge Guest confidently presents its harmonious ergonomic profile. A wide range of base options effectively leverages the line's universal appeal.

STYLEX

Designer: Aodh O'Donnell
Irish-born Aodh O'Donnell first joined Stylex as an intern while studying at Philadelphia University. After graduation, he stayed on and helped develop an outstanding design studio within the company. Following Robus and Ridge, Ridge Guest is the third product O'Donnell has contributed to the Stylex portfolio.
