RE: Sole Source Verification

To Whom It May Be Concerned:

As you may know, Blackbaud Award Management™ is an application fully developed, sold and supported exclusively by Blackbaud. Please be advised that Blackbaud is the sole owner of any and all intellectual property related to this software program and is the sole provider of this program and related Learn training services for this program. There are no other individuals or entities authorized to provide software, training, maintenance and support, or associated professional services.
