To Our Valued Hemostasis Customer,

Please be advised that Werfen develops and manufactures the ACL line of instruments and consumables, as well as the HemosIL line of reagents. Werfen is the sole distributor of these products in the USA and Canada. Servicing of the ACL instruments is done solely by Werfen or by an authorized party.

At Werfen, we strive to provide the highest quality products with the best service and support for your lab. We appreciate your investment in our growing company of products and services, and look forward to serving all your Hemostasis needs.

Sincerely,

Venita C. Shirley
Director of Marketing, Commercial Operations
