

Federal Education Grants Management Publication

Product Description:

The Education Grants Management explains the rules and requirements of the Education Department General Administrative Regulations. It includes the new Uniform Grant Guidance to ensure your costs are allowable and that your procurement, inventory and financial management systems are set up to be in compliance. It includes new standards, increase to the small purchase threshold, mandated changes in allowability and cash management procedures and new requirements for performance reporting and identification of awards.

Why is this Product the only one that will meet your need?

There has been no other product found that provides a concessive and consolidated rendering of Education Grants Management- 5th Edition.

Why the source is the only person or entity that can provide the required commodity?

Only one known provider of this source document

Why is the amount to be expended for the commodity reasonable?

The list price for this product is $142.00 per copy and the quoted price for 200 books is $19,880 at $99.40 per book. This is a saving of $8,520.00.

The efforts the agency went through to obtain the best pricing?

An online search for this product was made and no other producer of a publication containing this information was found. There was also no other distributor of this LRP's publication found.

Pricing is justified by the material provided within this document to support OFP's services provided to LEAs in administering federal grants.

The New Title I Publication

The New Title I publication explains every element of Title I including the Adequate Yearly Progress, fiscal issues, and parental involvement. It is also a great reference at helping districts stay in compliance with the existing and new Title I regulations and requirements which will avoid common pitfalls and help implement best practices for the district's size, location and funding sources. This publication is used to help understand how the Obama administration's new "ESEA Flexibility" initiative affects the program, receive update on the new "college- and career-ready" standards and aligned assessments that must be established by ESEA Flex states, discover new guidance on Title I preschool programs and on documenting time and effort in Title I schools, and research new teachers evaluation and professional development systems mandated by the ESEA Flexibility initiative.

Why is this Product the only one that will meet your need?

There has been no other product found that provides a concessive and consolidated publication of The New Title I- 8th Edition.

Why the source is the only person or entity that can provide the required commodity?

Only one known provider of this source document

Why is the amount to be expended for the commodity reasonable?

The list price for this product is $229.00 per copy and the quoted price for 200 books is $32,060 at $160.30 per book. This is a saving of $13,740.00.

The efforts the agency went through to obtain the best pricing?

An online search for this product was made and no other producer of a publication containing this information was found. There was not another distributor of this LRP's publication found.

Pricing is justified by the material provided within this document to support OFP's services provided to LEAs in administering federal grants.

Serving Homeless Students Publication

Product Description:

Serving Homeless Students Publication explains the federal guidance and strategies that align services with students' needs in order to help them achieve academic success. It includes the breakdown of required district-level set-asides and allowable expenditures, explanations of supplement, not supplant and comparability rules for homeless student services, and assisting with technique. The publication also provides knowledgeable information about identifying, enrolling, placing and transport homeless students.

Why is this Product the only one that will meet your need?

There has been no other product found that provides a concessive and consolidated publication of Serving Homeless Students- 2nd Edition.

Why the source is the only person or entity that can provide the required commodity?

Only one known provider of this source document

Why is the amount to be expended for the commodity reasonable?

The list price for this product is $33.45 per copy and the quoted price for 300 books is $7,026 at $23.42 per book. This is a saving of $3,009.00.

The efforts the agency went through to obtain the best pricing?

An online search for this product was made and no other producer of a publication containing this information was found. There was not another distributor of this LRP's publication found.

Pricing is justified by the material provided within this document to support OFP's services provided to LEAs in administering federal grants.